

Project Location

Objectives and Project Information

Objectives

- To be an office building for both existing and future employees

Project Information

- Sriracha new office is a nine-storey building with a total area of 34,112 square meters
 - ✓ Office Building
 - ✓ Car Park

Environmental Mitigation Measures During Construction Phase

- Providing regular preventive maintenance for trucks especially for diesel engine one to ensure that its exhaust meets emission standard
- Providing a temporary fence between project's and others' area
- Spraying water in construction area twice a day to control dust emission
- Monitoring ambient air quality once a month to ensure that all parameters comply with standard
- Limiting time to conduct noisy activities during 8.00 – 18.00 hrs. only
- Using equipment/machine that comply with noise standard
- Monitoring noise level including Leq24hr, L90, Lmax and vibration once a month
- Providing enough number of toilets to workers
- Treating wastewater generated from workers' activities by using on-site treatment system

- Prohibiting overloading of trucks/vehicles to prevent road damage
- Limiting speed of construction material trucks to 30 km/hr
- Installing relevant traffic warning signs at construction area and entrance-exit area
- Avoiding transportation of construction material during rush hour
- Providing 200 liter bins for collecting waste in construction area
- Do not dispose construction waste in the area that may cause any impacts to the surrounding communities

Project Status : In a construction phase

Contact Information

Government Relations Section, Thaioil Public Company Limited
Tel: 0-2797-2999 Fax: 0-2797-2974